

Local Race to New Records in Prineville's Annual Dam Run

A handful of records fell Sunday at the 2003 Dam Run, a multiple-distance event to benefit the track and cross-country teams at Crook County High School. Among the records set in the 22nd annual event were new men's and women's marks in the 30-kilometer race, a point-to-point route starting near Bowman Dam at Prineville Reservoir and finishing at the high school track.

Mike Dudley, 32, of Bend covered the 30K course in a record 1 hour, 38 minutes, 6 seconds. Lisa Nye, 34 and also of Bend, set a new women's record in the 30K race, finishing in 1:50:57. Also in the 30K Sunday, Bend's Harry Kittleman established a race record in the men's 70-79 age group. The 71-year-old completed the course in 3:17:22.

Three new age-group records were set in the 10-kilometer race, which started and finished at the Crook County High track.

In the men's 30-34 division, 32-year-old Bill Raitter of Bend set the new standard at 31:32. In the men's 40-44 group, Chuck Coates of Forest Grove set a new race record with his time of 33:39. In the women's 45-49 division, Cheryl Tronson of Bend set a new mark in the 10K race with her time of 39:54.
